CODE OF ETHICS

To devote myself to the betterment of the breed. To keep my dogs in healthy condition and in healthy environment. To ensure that my dogs are not a nuisance to my neighbors or to my community. To cover by written agreement, all stud service terms and keep accurate written records of matings, births, registrations and so forth. To accept full responsibility for every dog that I breed. To sell on a contract that ensures that I am contacted whenever the owner cannot keep a dog at any time in the dog's life. To assist in the placement of the dog or accept its return. As owner of a stud dog, to offer stud services only to those breeders who accept full responsibility for what they breed. To under no circumstance surrender a dog or puppy to a humane society or shelter. If the animal is unplaceable because it has destructive temperament, is seriously injured, terminally ill or it would be inhumane to prolong life, to take responsibility for the euthanization of the dog. To refrain from any deceptive or erroneous advertising. To cover, in writing, all Bills of Sale with details accuracy including: a) Registration/litter papers, b) A three generation pedigree, c) A complete medical history (record), d) Conditions and terms of sale, e) Details on proper feeding and care. To consider issuing limited registration papers, subject to rules of the AKC, or withholding registration papers until proof of spaying or neutering is presented on any dog sold or placed as a companion. To never supply a Dachshund to pet shops, commercial brokers or dealers, raffles or similar projects. To abide by and uphold the principles of the bylaws of the Houston Dachshund Club, Inc., and the American Kennel Club, Inc.

Violation of this Code of Ethics will result in the immediate revocation of membership in the Houston Dachshund Club, Inc. by action of the Board of Directors.
